Deadline nears on Hoopeston Chamber car drawing

Time is running out to purchase tickets for the Hoopeston Chamber of Commerce "Great Car Giveaway."

Tickets are $1 each and give the buyer a chance to win a Chevrolet Malibu from Read Motors, a Ford Ranger from Crown Ford Lincoln Mercury or a Dodge Stratus from King Motors, all of Hoopeston.

The Chamber must sell 15,000 tickets to give away a car. If the number of tickets sold is less, a 50/50 drawing will be held. The lucky winner will be chosen at noon Monday.

Additionally, cash drawings will be held Saturday and Sunday nights at McFerren Park.

Tickets are available from Chamber of Commerce members and will be sold before Saturday's National Sweetcorn Festival parade downtown.

Police News

Ramon D. Villalobos, 19, of 313 E. McCracken, was arrested at 11:12 p.m. Wednesday after police said he broke into a house at 316 McNeil.

Police said an resident was home when Villalobos broke in through a bedroom window. Villalobos fled, but was caught about 15 minutes later at East Thompson and North Fifth St., police said.

Villalobos faces preliminary charges of residential burglary, home invasion and criminal damage to property.

He was taken to the Public Safety Building, Danville.

Sharon Boose, 410 E. McNeil, reported Thursday that someone came into her home through a back door and went into her daughter's bedroom, leaving the light on. A kitchen light was also left on, the refrigerator left open and a set of keys taken. The keys were later found in Boose's pickup truck.

Police said nothing was taken from the home.

Ryan Standifer, 503 E. Penn, reported Thursday that someone took a medical bag and contents from his 1995
